

DPO CPD programme: Foundation course led by Dai Durbridge

Designed and delivered by Dai Durbridge, this Foundation course is devised and led by education data protection lawyer, Dai Durbridge who will provide you with all you need to know to carry out your role and stay up to date throughout the year. Delivered remotely via Zoom the interactive and engaging course is limited to around 30 delegates per course.

With 19 hours of contact time over five months, this bite-sized approach to learning provides:

- nine two-hour sessions of interactive training; and
- one one-hour sessions in the middle the course to help embed learning, create space for discussion with other DPOs, and to ensure all your questions are answered.

1. Undertaking your DPO role (2 hours)

- Understanding the role of the DPO
- Meeting your objectives and managing your fears
- Learning from others: 10 top tips
- Navigating hurdles and blockers

2. Legal foundation stones –ú

- Evidencing practice on the ground
-

7. Data breach in practice: case study deep dive - part one (2 hours)

- Learning from education data breaches: how to avoid the most frequent and dangerous breaches
 - Personal and special category personal data breach involving 100+ individuals
 - Assessing, understanding and containing the breach
 - Managing affected individuals
-

8. Consent: when and how best to use it (2 hours)

- Relying on other lawful bases instead
 - Correct forms, clear process
 - Parent or child? From whom to obtain consent
-

9. Changing culture to succeed in your role (2 hour)

-